Education Resource Group proudly presents:

Jan Burkins & Kim Yaris

*Reading Wellness: Lessons that Teach
Independence and Proficiency*

- Do you want to help students gain independence and proficiency as readers?
- Do you want to increase your understanding of the Common Core Standards?
- Do you want to plan and implement rigorous Common Core lessons?

If you answered yes to any of these questions, you don't want to miss this opportunity to learn from Burkins and Yaris—two of the nation's leading experts on literacy and the Common Core Standards.

Join other K-5 teachers, coaches, and administrators to collaborate with and learn practical strategies for meeting the challenges of balancing lifelong learning against immediate accountability demands. Space is limited, so register soon! We hope to see you in July!

About Burkins & Yaris

Together, Jan Burkins and Kim Yaris are the writers and thinkers behind Burkins and Yaris—Think Tank for 21st Century Literacy, where their blog and their instructional resources have drawn a national audience and made them thought leaders in the field of literacy. They are the authors of the forthcoming book from Stenhouse Publishers, Reading Wellness (Fall 2014). They are passionate about helping teachers implement the Common Core without sacrificing their inner teacher, and support schools and districts by facilitating staff development, conducting in-class demonstrations, and developing curriculum. You can learn more about their work at BurkinsandYaris.com.
