Education Resource Group Summer 2015 Workshops

Strategies for Reading Acceleration

August 4, 2015

8:30-3:30

A solid base of research shows that students learn reading best when they have access to a full range of instructional strategies. In this workshop we will unpack:

- Active Reading
- Teaching Reading as Thinking
- Comprehension Strategies
- Reading Response
- Explicit Instruction
- Motivation

(Appropriate for K-6)

Creating Meaningful Literacy Work Stations

August 5, 2015

8:30-3:30

What will the other students do when I pull small groups? This workshop will answer this common question. A classroom organized for literacy learning supports purposeful reading and writing work. In this workshop we will unpack:

- Processes and Procedures
- The Learning Environment
- Meaningful Tasks
- Learning as a Social Process
- Importance of Feedback
- Accountability

(Appropriate for K-6)
