

Education Resource Group presents a special one-day event:

The Next Step Forward in Guided Reading

March 19, 2018

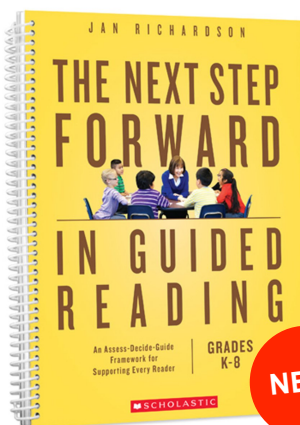

8:30 – 3:30

Take the next step forward to pinpoint guided reading instruction that supports every reader in your classroom.

This workshop will include:

- Guided reading essentials
- Assess-Decide-Guide framework
- Tips for moving all stages of reading forward
- The top 12 comprehension strategies
- Writing connections

Support all students, including dual-language learners and struggling readers!

Meet the Presenter:

Michelle Himmelman is a graduate of UNC-Greensboro and Elon University. For the past 15 years, Michelle has served in a variety of roles in education including K-12 classroom instruction, instruction at the university level, and educational consulting. Through her work consulting in schools and presenting at conferences, Michelle continues to seek out best instructional practices to share with educators of all levels.
