

events: EXPERT SPEAKER SERIES*Creating Voice and Choice in the Classroom*Instilling the Sense of Agency, Ownership, and Independence with All Learners

Join us for a day of learning what agency is, why it matters, and its connections to student (and teacher) choice and identity. The workshop is geared toward grades K-5.

Teachers will leave with:

- A clear understanding of what agency is
- Specific actions and strategies for nurturing agency and independence within children and themselves
- A deeper understanding of why student and teacher identity matters
- Ideas for creating classroom environments and routines that allow agency and independence to flourish

“To advance the sense of agency and independence, children need freedom to discover who they are, how they learn, what makes them happy, and ways to contribute to the greater good, in the classroom and beyond, now and always.” -Debbie Miller
