

Debbie Miller's Independent Reading Framework

presented by Education Resource Group

The Debbie Miller Independent Reading Framework is designed to advance the sense of agency and independence in all students. In order to do this, students need freedom to discover who they are, how they learn, what they want to learn, and ways to contribute to the greater good, in the classroom and beyond.

Topics related to this service include:

- Reading Workshop
- Conferring
- Interactive Read Aloud
- Minilessons/Explicit Teaching
- Independent Reading with Accountability

ERG has an innovative approach to staff development. Our team of consultants who are personally trained by Debbie Miller are available for:

- Keynotes
- Workshops/Trainings
- Demonstration lessons
- PLC planning sessions
- Job-embedded coaching

“Classroom environments are organic – they grow as we do. The best of them reflect the hearts and souls of those who inhabit them. They’re never really finished. They’re never really ‘done.’ How could they be, when every day students and teachers learn something new?”

Debbie Miller Independent Reading Framework Manifesto

We believe:

- That students need to be given time to think, reflect, and respond in order to construct knowledge.
- That understanding student and teacher identity matters.
- That providing quality choices leads to quality learning possibilities.
- That healthy environments and routines build healthy communities of learners.
