presented by Education Resource Group

The ultimate goal of classroom assessment is the advancement of student learning. ERG has collaborated with Sue Brookhart because we know the most effective learning takes place when students know what they are trying to learn, use criteria to actively compare their current work to the goal, and take action to improve.

ERG has an innovative approach to staff development. Consultants are available for:

“It makes me feel good to know that they are spreading expertise in classroom assessment to schools, more widely than I could myself. The end result, for me, is students and teachers having better information about learning.”
